Fr. Beretta was born on 23 December 1919 in Camparada, Milan, he joined the Institute on 8 October 1938, and was ordained a priest on 18 December 1943. He was asked to take up duties in Italy, before leaving for Hong Kong on 6 October 1947.

His main commitments in Hong Kong were: assistant at St. Teresa’s Church (1950-1953), vicar at the Cathedral (1953-1956), parish priest of the Holy Rosary Church (1957-1964), teacher in the seminary (1964-1968). He left for Italy in 1968 where he stayed as a vocational animator in the diocesan seminaries. From September 1972 he worked in the Milan Missionary Centre as animator, as well as in Busto Arsizio and Senigallia. In July 1987, he was sent to London as rector of the house in Watford. While riding a bicycle, he fell down due to a heart attack and remained in a coma: he received medical care in England, in Italy and finally at Rancio, Lecco, where he died on 11 January 1988.
