Mgr. Piazzoli was born on 12 May 1845 in Alzano, Bergamo; he joined the seminary of Bergamo in 1864, and then entered the Institute on 7 September 1868, where he was ordained a priest on 1 November 1868. After twelve months of training, he was sent to Hong Kong on 14 October 1869.

He was entrusted with the whole mainland section of the Hong Kong Mission, having his main residence at Ting Kok. He worked there, always on the move, until 1891, when he was forced by bad health to return to Hong Kong. In 1892 he took over from Fr. Burghignoli, the post of the procurator of the S.C. Propaganda, and in 1895 he was appointed to succeed Mgr. Raimondi as Apostolic Vicar of Hong Kong.

Seriously ill, he was advised by the doctor to return to Italy in October 1904. He died in Milan on 26 December 1904 (Bibl.: Domenico PIAZZOLI, Mons. Luigi Piazzoli, Vescovo Vicario apostolico di Hong Kong, PIME, Milano, 1942; NN., Notice biographique de Louis-Marie Piazzoli, Vicaire apostolique de Hong Kong, Boulogne Sur-mer, 1906).

Mons. Piazzoli, nato il 12-5-1845 ad Alzano, Bergamo, entrò nel seminario di Bergamo nel 1864, per passare nell'Istituto il 7-9-1868 e fu ordinato sacerdote l'1-11-1868. Dopo l'anno di prova, partì per Hong Kong il 14-10-1869. Gli fu affidata tutta la missione sul continente con la sede a Ting Kok. Vi rimase fino al 1891, quando fu costretto dalla malattia a rientrare a Hong Kong. Nel 1892 successe a p. Burghignoli come Procuratore della SCPF e nel 1895 a mons. Raimondi come vicario apostolico, fino al 1904.

Ammalatosi gravemente gli fu consigliato il ritorno in Italia nell'ottobre 1904. Morì a Milano il 26-12-1904 (Domenico PIAZZOLI, Mons. Luigi Piazzoli, Vescovo Vicario apostolico di Hong Kong, PIME, Milano, 1942; NN., Notice biographique de Louis-Marie Piazzoli, Vicaire apostolique de Hong Kong, Boulogne Sur-mer, 1906).
